

43 Pine Street
New York, Nov 4, 1859

Friend Spooner:

I thank you from your kindness in granting the little favor I asked. I return the letter. If you will compare my predictions, made nearly twelve months since, in regard to the insurrection (in behalf of the negro slaves) at the South, with what has actually occurred at Harper's Ferry, I think you will concede that I have a tolerably correct understanding of the condition of things in the Southern states.

Yours Truly,
H.R. Helper

previous