March 15th 1860

Dear Sir,

Your kind note has just come to hand, and in reply I have to say that I am very much grateful that you are to prepare this much needed collection of the outrages of Slavery. It has seemed to me that a collection of these outrages would be of great value, and where Mr. Steurns was here I made the suggestion to him and he with the zeal he sees manifests for the good cause has taken the matter up and I am sure he has done the right thing in selecting you for the work.

Your plan is a capital one, but I agree with Mrs. Child that you had better get these facts out in murders. The m__lic on the outrage on persons is the one most wanted in the present condition of the country and I agree with your suggestion of getting it out first. If you can do so by time time of the Chicago Convention you will do a good work.

Our friends here feel quite confident of carrying the next election, but no one can now tell who the candidate will be. Seward is now gaining, but his nomination is in doubt.

Yours truly,
H. Wilson
